

EM & Lector Notes Effective 7/10/10

New Lector Notes Effective 7/24/10

Extraordinary Ministers of Communion

1. To minimize distractions:
 - ❖ Come from the assembly (as you have been) when the celebrant consumes the Precious Blood
 - ❖ NEW
 - Return to the assembly as soon you have returned your vessel to the Credence table
 - DO NOT line up in front of the altar as a group
2. If there is Precious Blood remaining in the cup – return to the credence table, and consume, if possible, any remaining precious blood at that time
 - ❖ DO NOT:
 - Consume the left over before returning to the credence table
 - Put the vessels in the sacristy – this is the responsibility of the Deacon or Priest

Lectors

1. NEW 7/24/10 – PROCESSION NOTE
 - ❖ If there is a deacon at the Mass – process directly to your seat by the ambo when you reach the altar
 - ❖ If there is no deacon and you are carrying the Book of the Gospels:
 - Carry the book to the back of the altar
 - Lay it flat in the center of the altar
 - Bow when the priest kisses the altar
 - Proceed to your seat by the ambo
2. NEW 7/10/10
 - ❖ Collections Basket –
 - If handed the collection basket(s) – place by credence table – not by the ambo
 - Money Counters can get the baskets when they are ready by opening the door a little as possible to retrieve them
 - ❖ Place the Prayer intention book on the arm of the ambo or the kneeler

EM's & Lectors

1. Even though it is summer – always dress appropriately for a meal at the Lord's table
 - ❖ Do not wear clothes that draw attention to yourself, look like you are going to the beach,
 - ❖ Portray a sense of respect and modesty –
 - ❖ Show respect for the Sacred Space that you are in
2. If not scheduled – assume you may be needed and dress ready to serve
3. Remember that you are a visible member of our faith community and are an example to the entire assembly
4. Through your example you have a responsibility to help others understand that the church is Sacred Space and participate fully in the Sacred Liturgy
5. DO NOT go in and out of the sacristy during mass
